as mail matter of the second class.

At last account, Roosevelt was still rocking the boat.

In politics a boom sometimes soon changes to a boomerang.

Most all of us are willing to forgive our enemies if we are only permitted to get square with 'em first.

No wonder so many men have accidents while out hunting. Some of them get half shot before they start.

Ologodyspsia, a lack of thirst, is a new disease, just announced. It is supposed to be cultivated, not contracted.

Girls who are "banking" on 1912 and the possibilities of leap-year should also remember that 1-9-1-2 totals thirteen.

Senator Wm. O. Bradley has come out strong for a re-nomination of President Taft for the Presidency.
But does that really settle the matter?

According to managers of the system, both President Taft and Mr.
Roosevelt are on the right road but the wrong train for the Presidential nomination.

Col. Roosevelt's "involuntary" candidacy for the Presidency is what seems to be stirring up the animals in the Republican menagerie most just at present.

Take the churches, schools and newspapers out of the country and we would go back to barbarism, very quickly. Whether you believe in the efficiency of any one of these three or not, ever stop to think of it?

Perhaps you remember it was said some years ago that Col. Roosevelt "made" Taft. But there seems to be an "unmaking" process going on just at present, with the doughty Colonel supervising the proceedings.

Perhaps one explanation of the opposition of newspapers to woman suffrage is that many editors are baldheaded and in case they should ever run for office, they realize that their chances with the fair sex at the ballot box would be nil.

The Madisonville Hustler has ceased to appear as a daily, but will continue semi-weekly. Publisher Givens says the daily has never made any money from the start.
Mr. Givens is a good newspaper man and when he gives up a venture, it is a fair indication that there is nothing in it.

Rev. Melbourne P. Boynton, pastor of Lexington-avenue Baptist Church at Chicago, declares that preachers are underpaid, overworked and are in need of a labor union to protect their interests. There seems to be no reason why the ministry should not join the great trades unions in organization for a better livelihood.

In his message to the Legislature Gov. McCreary strongly favors immigration. A good idea and worth urgent attention. In the matter of gain in population Kentucky has not kept pace with other States.
There has been too much going away and not enough coming into our borders. There is plenty of room here for immigrants of the right kind, without any detriment to our native citizenship. Let the good people come.

Mr. McCreary has been Governor of Kentucky some several days now, also Kentucky has been under Democratic administration for the same length of time, but we have not heard yet of where the negroes were herded up and put into bondage, like they were told by their Republican bosses would take place if the above events transpired. How much longer will the negro suffer himself to be deluded during election times by his white Republican brother?

Mr. Stockman, Mr. Driver—whoever has charge of dumb brutes these wintry days—be merciful to your beasts. Remember they, too, feel the biting cold. Provide them with shelter or protection of some sort—an old quilt or an old shed is better than nothing. You will lose nothing by it and the chances are you will be the gainer in more ways than in the glorious satisfaction of doing a kindly act.

That was a fitting favor, worthily bestowed, when Gov. McCreary appointed Col. W. B. Haldeman, editor of the Louisville Times, as Adjutant General of the State of Kentucky, to succeed Gen. Johnston, the appointment taking effect at once.
Col. Haldeman is a typical Kentuckian of broad information and versatile talents, and he will wear the honors of his office with full dignity and ability.

The Louisville Times has issued another little booklet entitled "Who's Who," in the General Assembly, compiled on the same order of the one it issued under the same title two years ago. The little booklet gives a lot of valuable information concerning the personnel of the Kentucky Legislature and the governing powers, past and present.
The Times deserves congratulations if not cash for this stroke of enterprise.

SUNNYDALE.

Jan. 8.—The farmers are talking about putting out a large crop of tobacco this year. We think that they had better cut the acreage down and get a better price for what they raise. You see what the present crop brought you this time, Mr. Farmer, so hold to the A. S. of E. and get good prices for your tobacco.

Mr. Joe Maiden, of Palo, sold a fine pair of mules last week to Mr.
Armistead, of Clear Run, for $400 cash.

Mr. R. A. Duke, of Magan, went to Hartford last Saturday on business.

Mrs. Bettie Gray and Mrs. Sis Wimpsett, of Concord, and Mrs.
John Wimpsett, of Palo, visited Mr. and Mrs. James Gray last week.

Misses Effe and Edith Duke, of Palo, have returned home. They have been visiting their sister, Mrs.
A. R. Renfrow, at the Narrows, for the past week. They report a fine time and are now ready to start to school at Hartford.

Mr. Due and Miss Neal Alford, of this place, started to school at Hartford this morning.

Mr. Damon Miller, of Magan, visited Mr. George Hickey, at Concord, last Sunday.

Mr. Sandy Smith has sold his farm and will move in a few days to Owensboro.

Mr. J. T. Lowe will go to Owensboro in a few days to lay in a stock of blacksmith material.

CONCORD.

Jan. 8.—Mrs. Henry Allen and children left last Monday for Bloomington, Ill., where she will make her future home.

Mr. A. L. Smith has sold his farm to Mrs. Ellen Wyson, of Sunnydale, consideration $600. Mr.
Smith does not know yet where he will locate.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dalton, of Sulphur Springs, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Barnes.
Emmet Smith and Cephus Vance went to Owensboro last Monday, returning Tuesday.

Mr. A. B. Miller and Mrs. Ellen Wyson went to Hartford Saturday on business.

Quite a number of the farmers from this local attended the County Union at Hartford Friday and Saturday.

Miss Elsie Smith, of Sunnydale, spent from Friday till Sunday with her aunt Lennie Barnes, of this place.

Mr. J. P. Thompson, of East Hartford, was in this neighborhood one day last week.

Master Harland Barnes has returned to his home here from a ten-days visit with his uncles, Henry and Ed Barnes, of Beaver Dam.

LEITCHFIELD LIVERYMAN

SUFFERS FIRE LOSS

Leitchfield, Ky., Jan. 6.—The livery and feed stable of Cliff Milam, in this city, was destroyed by fire this morning at 1 o'clock. The fire was not discovered until it was beyond control, and three horses and a small quantity of feed were burned. The barn was a small one, and was owned by G. H. Gardner. The loss is partially covered by insurance. Last February Mr. Milam suffered severely from a fire, losing several horses and his livery stock.

Coughs and Colds

You could not please us better than to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis. Thousands of families always keep it in the house.
The approval of their physician and the experience of many years have given them great confidence in this standard cough medicine.
Sold for seventy years.

Any good doctor will tell you that a medicine like Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cannot do its best work if the bowels are constipated. Ask your doctor if he knows anything better than Ayer's Pills for correcting this sluggishness of the liver.

AN INDICATION FOR YEAR 1912

Big Affair Attended by Many Leaders.

HIGH-PRICE WORLD-WIDE WAVE

Shown to be Erroneous—How Protection Swaps Our Citizenship.

WE SEEM TO GET WORST OF IT

(By C. H. Tavenner.)

Washington, Jan. 6.—Coming in with the new year 1912, a year in which the Democratic hosts confidently expect to elect a President and march into the promised land, the Jackson Day banquet in Washington January 8 marks a triumph in the ascendancy of the Democracy that has not been signified in any similar gathering in many years.

With an array of leaders at the banquet board such as the party has not boasted for perhaps a half a century; with 700 prominent party men present from far and wide to add importance and brilliance—this coupled with the knowledge of all that the enemy is hopelessly divided and dumbfounded, makes the Jackson Day gathering an auspicious occasion to every Democrat.

On the list of speakers are to be found the names of Norman E.
Mack, of New York, chairman of the National Democratic committee; Champ Clark, of Missouri, Speaker of the Democratic House; Joseph R. Folk, ex-Governor of Missouri; James T. Lloyd, chairman of the National Democratic Congressional Committee; William J. Bryan, of Nebraska, three times Democratic candidate for President; Woodrow Wilson, Governor of New Jersey; John W. Kern, United States Senator from Indiana; William R.
Hearst, of New York; Alton B. Parker, of New York, and United States Senators Chas. F. Johnson, of Maine, and Atlee Pomerene, of Ohio, with Senator James A. O'Gorman, of New York City, as toastmaster.

Already during this session of Congress many of the orators among the standard Republicans have tried to explain the prevailing high prices with the argument that the high price wave is world-wide.
This is another of the half-truths which the Republicans seek to have the people accept as a whole excuse.

Mr. R. H. Hooker, of London, read a paper before the Royal Statistical Society of England recently, in which he showed that the increased cost of "all commodities" was twice as much in high-protection Germany and high-protection United States as in free-trade England.
"Comparing food prices for this year with 1899," said Mr. Hooker, "we find there has been an increase of 1 per cent in France; 8 per cent in England; 25 per cent in Germany; 28 per cent in Canada, and 34 per cent in the United States."

Why is it that "world-wide causes" result in an increase of 1 and 8 per cent in France and England, and 34 per cent in this country?

High protectionists always address their appeals to farmers and workingmen. "High tariff," they argue, "means high prices for farm products and high wages for the workers."

Last year 145,000 American farmers, all of whom were supposed to be enjoying the fruits of a tariff, left this country and went to Canada. In the same period approximately a million laborers came to this country from abroad, 81 per cent of them coming from the south of Europe, where wages are low, education almost nothing, and standards of living primitive and filthy.
These laborers are taken in by the trusts at wages but little better than they got at home, and under conditions of employment unthinkable to American workingmen.

Thus the high tariff drives out good American farmers, and brings in—what?

A. G. HOWARD, PROMINENT FARMER, DIES AT UTICA

A. G. Howard, one of the best known and most prominent farmers of Daviess county, died at his home near Utica Saturday afternoon shortly before 3 o'clock, after a short illness of pneumonia, which was superinduced by grip. Mr.
Howard was taken ill about 10 days ago with grip, which finally developed into a very aggravated case of pneumonia.

Mr. Howard was born in McLean county on April 28, 1834, and was in his 78th year. He has always been a prosperous farmer, a prominent member of the Baptist church and one of the leading Democrats of that section of the county. He is survived by his wife, who is also dangerously ill of pneumonia, and the following children: Messrs.
James and Nestor Howard, of Utica, and Blanchard Howard, of Henderson; Mrs. J. W. Tompkins, Mrs. A.
A. Westerfield, Mrs. Bert Haley and Mrs. Rex O'Flynn.

BENNETTS.

Jan. 8.—Mrs. W. R. Griffin, who has been ill for some time, died Friday and was buried Saturday at Nocreek cemetery. She leaves a husband and several children to mourn her loss.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormick are visiting her daughter at Knoxville, Tenn.

Mr. Tom Chinn and family are moving to Beaver Dam and Mr. Porter and family, of the Mines, are moving on the farm of Mr. Chinn.

Mr. Lee Royal and family have moved into this vicinity.

Misses Bessie, Desale and Lesale Greer are visiting their aunt, who lives near Whitesville.

Uncle John Porter, of Lynn City, is visiting relatives at this place.

Miss Lattie Sparks was the guest of Mrs. W. G. Hayden, of Maxwell, last week.

The school here will close in four weeks.

Do you know that pine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, and require no internal treatment whatever? Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely and sale by all dealers.

CITY ORDINANCE.

The City Council of the City of Hartford, Ky., do ordain as follows:

That the tax rate for general purposes in said city for the ensuing year be and the same is fixed at forty-five cents on each one hundred dollars ($100) of taxable property in said city, as shown by the assessment of the City Assessor as of date, September 15, 1911, and equalized by the Board of Equalization, and $1.50 poll tax on each male resident of said city over 21 years of age, and $1.00 on each dog over 4 months old September 15, 1911, in said city, owned or harbored by a resident of said city.

Said tax is levied for the purpose of paying off and discharging the balance of any indebtedness that may be owing by said city, and for the further purpose of maintaining and improving the streets and alleys, street lights, salaries of officers and employees and all other incidental expenses of said city government.

That the tax rate for the purpose of paying interest on the sewer bonds and creating a sinking fund for the final redemption of said bonds, be and same is fixed at thirty cents on each one hundred dollars ($100) of taxable property in said city, as shown by the assessment of the City Assessor as of date, September 15, 1911, and equalized by the Board of Equalization.

It is further ordered that all of said tax shall be due and payable on the first day of February, 1912, and if not paid on or before the first day of April, 1912, a penalty of 6 per centum shall be added to same and collected with said tax by the marshal of said city, then upon all taxes unpaid upon the first day of each month thereafter an additional 1/2 of 1 per cent. shall be added and collected by the said marshal.

Approved January 4, 1912.

One Fourth Off!

If you firmly believed that we were about to sell seasonable High Grade Fall and Winter Clothing, Ladies' Suits and Coats at

You'd come here to buy, wouldn't you? We prie ourselves on selling Good Clothing, Ladies' Suits, and that they are worth the regular price—is a matter of record. Now, if you knew that seventy-five cents would buy a dollar's worth of Good Clothing, you would buy it, wouldn't you?

Of Course If You Believed It

But the trouble is, that you don't believe it. So many dealers rant about bargains that are really snares, and print bombastic stuff that shows fraud on its face, that you are about out of belief. We can't blame you, but we reserve the right to prove what we say, and we will, if you will give us the opportunity.

We are unloading our Fall and Winter Clothing, Ladies' Suits and Coats—that's what we are at.
